Leaves are Falling, Autumn is Calling

October is quickly approaching! The month of October hosts three exciting HASA sponsored events. These events are wonderful opportunities to volunteer and connect with other parents.

The Scholastic Fall Book Fair begins Tuesday, October 9th and closes Friday, October 12th. Scholastic Books works closely with HASA to tailor a collection of books for all ages, reading levels, and interests. Last year's book fair awarded more than $7000 for our school library! Students will have an opportunity to preview the fair, and create a "wish list" before they shop. A flyer will go home the week before the fair with more information.

Generation's Day concludes Book Fair week on Friday, October 12th. Generation's Day is a school-wide event where students can bring a special person(s) to school (grandparents, aunts, uncles, neighbors, Mom, Dad, etc). Together, they will enjoy time in the classroom, attend Mass, and receive a warm welcome from Ms. Widner. Generation's Day culminates with an opportunity to shop the Book Fair. "Wish lists" in hand, students are able to present their favorite titles to their loved one for purchase.

Trick or Trunk is a fun way for our students and their families to celebrate Halloween together. Preschool through 5th grade students will take turns "trick or treating" from car to car (in the school's secured parking lot) in their Halloween costumes. Parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and other loved ones can volunteer as a car participant, showcasing their best "decorate a car for Halloween" skills while passing out candy, or simply donate candy.

The HASA team would like to extend a GIGANTIC thank you to all of the students, families, and parishioners for their generous recess equipment donations. Our student's continue to experience the blessing of benevolence from our Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton family.

The upcoming October General HASA meeting has been changed to Wednesday, October 17th. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the Library. We invite all families to attend.

Sincerely,

Carrie Norton
